GENERAL RULES

1. The Columbia County Fairgrounds will be open Wednesday thru Friday from 4-7pm each day and Saturday and Sunday from 1-4 pm for drop-off of all arts & crafts exhibits. Flowers and prepared food will be accepted between 8-11 a.m. on the day they are to be judged. All items should be pre-registered at www.columbiacountyfair.com before judging starts. Exhibit items must remain in place until Sunday after fair week. Agriculture and Home Economics exhibits can be picked up between 1 & 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon.
2. LIVESTOCK may be removed at 10 p.m. on Friday until 10 a.m. Saturday. If not picked up between these times, then they can't be removed until 10 p.m. Saturday. Anyone removing stock prior to release time will forfeit all premium monies which includes Jr. Livestock Sale Money.
3. All exhibits will be judged on their merits and judges may award 1st, 2nd, and 3rd or no premiums as their judgment may dictate. The decision of the judges in awarding the premiums shall be final. Where there is only one exhibitor in a class the single prize merited shall be paid.
4. All property of every character entered for competition or delay, or any other purpose, shall be subject to the control of the superintendents in charge, but in no case, shall the Columbia County Fair of Livestock Association or any of its officers or members be responsible for loss, damage, or injury of any character to such property while the same is on the grounds or any other place.
5. The fair Association will appoint a competent veterinarian who will determine the health of the livestock and poultry. Any animal or bird showing symptoms of a communicable disease will be removed by owner from the grounds.
6. All exhibits and equipment remaining on the grounds 24 hours after the close of the fair will be at the Extension Office for 30 days and then disposed of.
7. ADMISSIONS
Children under 5: Free Non-Riders: $5 Armbands: See Schedule of Events on page 2 for daily pricing.

Senior Exhibitor..... $15.00
Inside parking sticker..... $10.00 (Must be attached to windshield)
9. Ribbons will be awarded for placings 1st - 3rd.
10. Since a large part of the prize money is based on estimated income from gate receipts, premiums will be paid if money is available; otherwise premiums will be paid on a percentage basis.

11. All livestock exhibitors must attend school in Columbia County. The livestock they show must be permanently raised and kept in Columbia County.
12. Superintendents of each department will be present to assist the judges.
13. All breeding swine and breeding cattle will be shown by breeds.
14. The Fair Association reserves the right to reject inferior entries.
15. Payments of premiums can be obtained in the fair office starting Sunday 1 p.m. Premium winners must appear in person in order to receive their checks, Checks will not be given to exhibitor until your exhibit has been removed. CHECKS MUST BE CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS. IF THE CHECK IS NOT CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS THE CHECK WILL BE VOIDED AND NO NEW PAYMENT WILL BE ISSUED. ALL FEES MUST BE PAID BEFORE PREMIUM CHECKS CAN BE PICKED UP.
16. All Best of Show must be a First Place Winner.
17. The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show will not assume or pay any obligation unless prior approval has been obtained from their finance committee.
18. Premium moneys will be forfeited if exhibit is removed before stated release time.
19. INTERPRETATION AND VIOLATION OF RULES – The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Association reserves to its management the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the Fair and Livestock Association, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the management may order.
20. All Blue-Ribbon winners in the Columbia County Fair are eligible to enter in the District Fair at Hope and the State Fair at Little Rock.
21. The fair board reserves the right to have a blood and urine laboratory analysis made for any animal at their fair.
22. Any Exhibitor administering a drug to an animal which would render the carcass unfit for human consumption or any exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis indicating the presence of an unapproved drug that can result in quarantine or qualitative change in the characteristics of the animal will be required to return all premium money and could be banned from further competition. Their name and the lab analysis will be submitted to the USDA & FDA for further investigation and possible prosecution. Any animal receiving medication for any life-threatening disease or illness must be registered at the time they are entering the fair.
23. All errors dealing with premium checks and ribbons must be reported to Sonya Caldwell at 870-904-3874 within 5 days following the close of the county fair for payment. No Exceptions.

Sponsors

Magnolia – Columbia County Chamber of Commerce
Columbia County Cattleman's Association
Columbia County Farm Bureau

Sale Committee Chairman, Mike Launius

1. All exhibitors in the beef, sheep, swine, and, goat shows are eligible to enter one animal in premium sale. In addition, the grand champions from the meat rabbits, 4H pullets, turkeys, and broilers are eligible for sale. However, no individual may sell more than one animal. Premium bids only will be accepted during the sale.
2. The Columbia County Fair Association will not be responsible for the loss by death, injury, or otherwise of any animal while located on the grounds or while being transported to or away from the grounds.
3. No market swine grading below number 2 and steers or lambs grading below select will be eligible to sell.
4. Sale order will be determined by the sale committee and posted in or near the swine and cattle barn.
5. Each individual exhibitor shall be responsible in seeing that his animal is lead or driven into the ring in the proper order. Animals that are not properly identified or not brought into the ring in the proper order will be left in the pens and the Columbia County Fair Association will assume no responsibility in seeing that these animals are sold.
6. No animal will be sold for possession. Bidding will be for premium only.
7. All exhibitors must be active members of 4H or FFA.
8. All animals must be clean and properly fitted and groomed. Only the exhibitor, the exhibitor's family, Columbia County 4H or FFA Adviser and leader, may fit and groom an animal the day of the sale.
9. Steers will have a weight range of 1000 lbs. minimum; no maximum. Market swine will have a weight range of 160 lbs. minimum and 280 lbs. maximum – no exceptions. Lambs have a minimum weight of 85 lbs. and market goats will have minimum of 45 lbs.
10. The Sale Committee may determine a percentage of the sales price of each animal, not to exceed 4%, which shall be deducted from the proceeds payable to the exhibitor, which amount shall be used to cover the expense of the sale, including sale promotion and recognition of purchases.
11. Sale checks will not be mailed. Every effort will be made to collect bids and write checks before the state fair. In the event that bids are still outstanding at the time of the state fair, the percentage of total sale bids collected will be calculated and each exhibitor will be issued a check for that percentage of his buying price. When all bids have been collected the remainder of the checks will be issued.
12. Exhibitors must notify the Jr. Livestock Sale Chairman by 10 p.m. Wednesday as to which animal they intend to take through the sale. If notification is not made the Sale Chairman will make the decision as to which animal goes through the sale.

COLUMBIA COUNTY FAIR TALENT CONTEST

Tuesday @ 7:00pm

Entry fee for each category is $30.

QUALIFICATIONS AND RULES

1. The purpose of the Youth Talent Contest is to discover, develop, and encourage talent in the youth of this area. It is designed primarily for amateur talent, but any act which qualifies otherwise is eligible, even if the act received pay at some time EXCEPT where the person(s) are actually engaged in the entertainment business, or paid instructors of the Arts. Acts that may be considered professional should be brought to the attention of the County/ District Fair Manager who will be responsible for notifying the State Competitive Events Administrator and/or State Youth Talent Director will determine the contestant's eligibility. Their decision will be final.
2. Contestants for the Jr Youth Talent Contest must be between the ages of 10-15 and Sr Youth Talent contestants 16-21, by October 14. (opening day of the State Fair) Any contestants appearing younger or older than the required age should be prepared to furnish proof of age to the local and state directors.
3. Contestants must be legal residents of Columbia County. Contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime, nor have any criminal charges pending.
4. No contestant is allowed to compete in more than 2 different categories.
5. Contestants must legally reside in Columbia County for 6 months immediately preceding the county contest OR must be a full-time student who has attended school (academic, not dance etc.) for one full semester preceding the county contest. The State Fair is now requiring the county to send their county winners to the state contest, and their runners up to the district competition.
6. In the event that a contestant legally resides in one county and attends school in another county in Arkansas, the contestant may compete at the county level in one and only one of these 2 counties,
7. Contestants are REQUIRED to attend and be on time to rehearsal and the talent contest. Absent or tardy contestants are subject to disqualification. Rehearsal is extremely important, to ensure a smooth contest.
8. Any display of poor sportsmanship and/or unbecoming conduct of any kind could result in disqualification, not only from this year's contest, but any future county contest as well.
9. Any inappropriate lyrics of a song in ANY category or any inappropriate moves in the dance and variety categories will result in immediate disqualification. The contest director has the right to interrupt a performance if it is deemed not suitable for the youth talent contest.
10. No decorative or background props of any kind will be allowed. A prop must be used as a functional part of the act. Questionable problems must be discussed with the director, prior to the rehearsal.
11. Any act MUST NOT EXCEED THE 3 MINUTE TIME LIMIT. All acts are also limited to a 1-minute time to set up any equipment. NO EXCEPTIONS!!

COMPETITION CATEGORIES:

1. VOCAL SOLO shall consist only of a vocal performance by one vocalist. No other talent may be performed in conjunction with the vocal solo. CD's used for accompaniment will be allowed to provide limited vocal background.
2. VOCAL GROUP shall consist of 2 or no more than 15 vocalists. No other talent may be performed. CD's used for accompaniment will be allowed to provide limited vocal background.
3. INSTRUMENTAL SOLO shall consist of an instrumental performance without vocal utterance by one performer. Recorded accompaniment may be used. Contestants are encouraged to memorize their piece, rather than use sheet music on stage. Piano will be provided by the fair. NO DRUMS.
4. DANCE SOLO shall consist of one dancer. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. All types of dancing will be judged in this category- tap, jazz, ballet, folk, ethnic, fad, etc. Gymnastics, tumbling, acrobatics, or any other form of gymnastics is not included in this category. However, a routine can include a maximum of 2 gymnastic or acrobatic stunts.
5. DANCE GROUP shall consist of 2 or no more than 15 dancers. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. The same rules listed under dance solo apply.
6. VARIETY shall consist of a performance of 2 or no more than 15 people. This category is intended to provide a proper showcase for those acts in which multiple talents are displayed. Acts that fit the description of any other category will not be allowed to compete in this category. The following acts qualify for this category: song and dance, vocal and live instrumental, lip sync, pantomimes, impersonations, skits, juggling, ventriloquism, magic, and any other talent not applicable to any of the other categories. No act may include a drum set. No baton acts are included in this category.

FOOD PRESERVATION Superintendent: Linda Miller & Teresa Hatch & Cindy EmersonRULES

1. Canned food must be exhibited in standard clear canning jars with standard metal lids.
2. Names and Exhibitor numbers can be placed on the bottom of jars.
3. Head space to allow between packed food and closure: Liquid pack (fruit packed in juice, sugar, syrup or water, crushed or puree, juice): Pints - ½ inch, Quarts - 1 inch. Dry Pack (fruit packed without added sugar or liquid): Pints - ½ inch, Quarts - ½ inch.
4. Blue Ribbon Jars will be taken to District Fair.
5. DO NOT OPEN JARS
6. NEW REGULATIONS FOR COUNTY FAIR FOOD PRESERVATION ENTRIES: Exhibits must be labeled with the product name, date of food preservation, and method of preservation. Method must state whether processed in water bath, pressure canner, or using another method such as dehydration. The labels are redesigned and are smaller - to be placed on the lid of canned entries. Labels on the bottom of the jars should have your name and exhibitors number. For labels, contact County Extension Office or download from <http://uaex.eu/health-living/food-safety/preservation/>.
7. Due to updated safety reasons, none of the following will be accepted: canned squash, including summer, winter, zucchini or spaghetti; pureed or mashed sweet potatoes; pureed or mashed potatoes; and canned soups with added noodles or other pasta, rice, flour, cream, milk or other thickening agents: JARS SEALED WITH PARAFFIN OR WAX SEALS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

8. Using recipes from the following sources is strongly encouraged:
- So Easy to Preserve, 4th-6th editions. University of Georgia Cooperative Extension Service
 - USDA Complete Guide to Home Canning, 2009 revision. United States Department of Agriculture and National Institute of Food and Agriculture
 - Other Cooperative Extension publication updated or published after 1995.

HIDDEN VALLEY DRESSING CONTEST

Looking for a recipe that's easy to make and the whole family can enjoy? Something that tastes great and has everyone asking for seconds? So are the makers of Hidden Valley Salad Dressing and Seasoning Mix. We are looking for original recipes from your kitchen that will tempt appetites of all ages. You may create appetizers, stew, stir fry, vegetables, or any other recipe that includes original Ranch flavor of Hidden Valley Dressing and Seasoning Mix. Entries will be judged on all family appeal (40%), appearance (10%), and taste (10%). Recipes must be original and homemade, no mixes. Contest will be held on Tuesday, September 12, 2017 at 6:00 pm.

KIDS COOKIE CONTEST

Tuesday of fair week. Contest open to children 8 to 13 years of age. You are invited to create and bake cookies inspired by a favorite book. Contestants can enter any type or size baked cookie. Simply let your favorite book inspire you. Then create an imaginative recipe and bake up a batch to tasty cookies, using Gold Medal Flour. Some examples are "Hardy Boys Mystery Cookies", "International Chocolate Fog Cookies", (inspired by Around the World in Eighty Day), and "Bonnet Cookies" (inspired by Sarah Plain and Tall). Kids must be 8 to 13 years old at the time of the contest to enter. Entries will be judged on Creativity (50%), and Taste (50%), only one entry per child, name of the contestant and name of the book that inspired the cookie.

2017 WILTON AWARD GUIDELINES

Wilton Enterprise is pleased to help support our fair in the decorated cakes division. Wilton "Best of Class" awards are offered for winning cakes with some type of bag and tip or rolled fondant cake decorating.

If your fair has to separate age divisions i.e. Junior & Adult, we will award one "Best of Class" award to each division. If you have one division the, we will award one "Best of Class". Only one "Best of Class" award is available for each division, adult or junior.

"Best of Class" winners may choose one of the following awards:

Cupcake fun

Tired Cakes Book

Cake Decorating Basics

Wilton will also award one current Wilton Yearbook of Cake Decorating for each 1st prize winners in all cake decorating categories. Only five Yearbooks will be awarded to junior division and five awarded to adult division.

All "Best of Class" winners always receive Wilton Yearbook of Cake Decorating along with their choice of "Best of Class" prize. There is no need to list your "Best" winner as a 1st prize winner. Therefore, five additional 1st prize winners may be submitted.

PIE CONTEST

Pillsbury Pie Crust Contest to be held on Tuesday evening at 6:00 pm in the Jamerson Building on the Columbia County Fairgrounds. "Best Pie at the Fair" is a coveted title that often brings much admiration. You must use refrigerated pie crust to qualify for the contest. The filling is where your creative touch can be added using fruit, spices, custards, or any combination you can create. Pies are judged on taste (30%), appearance (25%), and creativity/appeal (10%). Any age may enter. One pie per entrant.

SEW WITH COTTON CONTEST

Columbia County Farm Bureau will sponsor the Sew With Cotton competition during the Columbia County Fair & Livestock Show. One Junior and one senior with the most points will each win a new Singer sewing machine. The clothing must be made of 100% cotton. Trims, thread and tapes must be cotton-blends. This competition helps to educate people in the use of cotton fabrics. Entries must be entered online in the Clothing Department. The winners will be announced on Monday afternoon when the judges have finished judging.
