GENERAL RULES

1. The Columbia County Fairgrounds will be open Saturday from 8:00am to 3:30pm and Sunday from 2-5:30pm for drop-off of all arts & crafts exhibits. Flowers and prepared food will be accepted between 8-11 a.m. on the day they are to be judged. All items should be pre-registered at www.columbiacountyfair.com before judging starts. Exhibit items must remain in place until Sunday after fair week. Agriculture and Home Economics exhibits can be picked up between 1 & 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon.
2. All exhibits will be judged on their merits and judges may award 1st, 2nd, and 3rd or no premiums as their judgment may dictate. The decision of the judges in awarding the premiums shall be final. Where there is only one exhibitor in a class the single prize merited shall be paid.
3. All property of every character entered for competition or delay, or any other purpose, shall be subject to the control of the superintendents in charge, but in no case, shall the Columbia County Fair of Livestock Association or any of its officers or members be responsible for loss, damage, or injury of any character to such property while the same is on the grounds or any other place.
4. All exhibits and equipment remaining on the grounds 24 hours after the close of the fair will be at the Extension Office for 30 days and then disposed of.
5. ADMISSIONS
Children under 5: Free Non-Riders: $5 Armbands: See Schedule of Events on page 2 for daily pricing.
6. Exhibitor passes for commercial exhibitors, booth operators, and livestock exhibitors will be available prior to the fair on Saturday and Sunday until 5 p.m.
7. Junior Exhibitor..... $15.00
8. Senior Exhibitor..... $15.00
9. Inside parking sticker..... $10.00 (Must be attached to vehicle)
10. Ribbons will be awarded for placings 1st – 3rd.
11. Since a large part of the prize money is based on estimated income from gate receipts, premiums will be paid if money is available; otherwise, premiums will be paid on a percentage basis.
12. Superintendents of each department will be present to assist the judges.
13. The Fair Association reserves the right to reject inferior entries.
14. Payments of premiums can be obtained in the fair office starting Sunday 1 p.m. Premium winners must appear in person in order to receive their checks, Checks will not be given to exhibitor until your exhibit has been removed. CHECKS MUST BE CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS. IF THE CHECK IS NOT CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS THE CHECK WILL BE VOIDED AND NO NEW PAYMENT WILL BE ISSUED. ALL FEES MUST BE PAID BEFORE PREMIUM CHECKS CAN BE PICKED UP.
15. All Best of Show must be a First Place Winner.
16. The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show will not assume or pay any obligation unless prior approval has been obtained from their finance committee.
17. Premium moneys will be forfeited if exhibit is removed before stated release time.
18. INTERPRETATION AND VIOLATION OF RULES – The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Association reserves to its management the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the Fair and Livestock Association, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the management may order.
19. All arts and crafts winners in the Columbia County Fair are eligible to enter in the District Fair at Hope and the State Fair at Little Rock.
20. Any errors dealing with premium checks and ribbons must be reported to the fair manager within 5 days following the close of the county fair for payment. No Exceptions.

LIVESTOCK

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1. Livestock must be in place on the fairgrounds by their designated time outlined in the calendar of events. Anyone removing stock prior to release time will be subject to all penalties for violations as listed in/under Junior Agriculture.
2. The fair Association will appoint a competent veterinarian who will determine the health of the livestock and poultry. Any animal or bird showing symptoms of a communicable disease will be removed by owner from the grounds.
3. All livestock exhibitors must live in or attend school in Columbia County.
4. The fair board reserves the right to have a blood and urine laboratory analysis made for any animal at their fair.
5. Any animal receiving medication for any life-threatening disease or illness must be registered with the Livestock Superintendent or his designee at the time they are entering the fair. Any Exhibitor administering a drug to an animal which would render the carcass unfit for human consumption or any exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis indicating the presence of an unapproved drug that can result in quarantine or qualitative change in the characteristics of the animal will be required to return all premium money and could be banned from further competition. Their name and the lab analysis will be submitted to the USDA & FDA for further investigation and possible prosecution.
6. All market animals must be weighed at their designated time outlined in the calendar of events and recorded by the livestock superintendent.
7. Certificates of Veterinary Inspection and Entry Permits: "Certificates of veterinary inspection" refers to a legible record made on an official form issued from the state of origin by an accredited veterinarian, which shows that the animals listed thereon meet requirements of the state of destination. It must bear the identification of each animal and separate certificates must be made for each species of animal entered. Entry permits are required on all out-of-state swine, rodeo bulls unless thirty (30) days of entry, psittacines, passerines, ratites, all other avian species except poultry and turkeys, cervids, camelids, or exotic animals. Permits are also required on all cattle entering Arkansas from any state, unless that state has a reciprocal agreement with Arkansas. Permit numbers can be obtained from the state veterinarian's office (501) 907-2400 from 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday - Friday. A certificate of veterinary inspection must accompany all out-of-state animals; and
  - a. Must be available on request by animal health officials.
  - b. Individually identify all animals, showing positive identification of each animal by tattoo, ear tag, registration number or ear notch. Steers should be identified by description.
  - c. Show required test, vaccinations, and entry permit number, if applicable.
  - d. Show name and address of owner or exhibitor - this shall be the same name as under which animals are exhibited.
8. Any animal or poultry showing any evidence of infectious or contagious disease, or of external parasitism, and animals with active ringworm lesions (with the resulting loss of hair), multiple warts easily visible without close examination, or atrophic rhinitis will not be permitted to exhibit.
9. All animals entering the grounds, including those shown in pet zoos, children's barnyard animals, Poultry & Rabbit Barn, must meet requirements of their particular species.
10. All animals originating out of areas quarantined because of other diseases (vesicular stomatitis, scabies, etc.) shall not be permitted to enter the state.
11. Poultry and rabbits are dismissed immediately after their awards ceremony. All other livestock is released at 10 pm on Friday.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

GENERAL RULES

1. All livestock entries for the Columbia County Fair will be due online at www.columbiacountyfair.com by midnight, August 31.
2. No incomplete entries will be accepted. If incomplete entries are submitted, they will be considered null and void. This includes all information asked for on the entry form including Breed Registry numbers, 840 Tag numbers, and Scrapie ID Tag numbers. This is the same as NO entry submitted and no consideration will be allowed past the entry deadline.
3. The Columbia County Fair & Livestock Show Association’s Fair Management reserves the right to enforce penalties for violations of the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show. Penalties include any or all of the following:
  - a. Expulsion from entry at any future Columbia County Fair & Livestock Shows.
  - b. Suspension from entry for a period of years.
  - c. Surrender of all premiums, awards, and placings
  - d. Reimbursement of all associated costs incurred by the Columbia County Fair & Livestock Show, including attorney fees.
  - e. Referral to law enforcement for violations.
  - f. Other penalties as determined by the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show.
4. It is the exhibitor’s responsibility to read and understand all the requirements of the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show, no exceptions! Violations of these rules are not taken lightly by state or federal officials or by the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show. Be aware that the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show’s Fair Management reserves the right, that penalties may also be assessed against family members of the violating exhibitor.
5. Exhibitors, be sure that all family members and others assisting with the care of your animals are aware of the rules. Remember you are responsible for what happens to the animal and not someone else! The responsibility rests on your shoulders! Maintaining integrity and following the rules of fair play is the primary reason for the policies and procedures. We cannot lose sight of the fact that we have a moral and ethical responsibility to our animals, fellow exhibitors, and our community. Those who disrespect these responsibilities can and will suffer the consequences.
6. This department is open to members of good standing of 4-H clubs and FFA Chapters in Columbia County. Exhibitors may show no later than the fall after graduating high school. Exhibitors must be six years old by the first day of the fair.
7. Exhibitors are personally responsible for the general custody, care and feeding of their animals. Family members, Columbia County 4-H leaders, Columbia County FFA Advisors, and fellow exhibitors that are in good standing with the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show may assist with these tasks. A contestant must be a resident of Columbia County and must have been born a female. She cannot be, become, or at any time have been married, engaged, had a marriage annulled, pregnant, or have had a child. Contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending. Past Arkansas State Fair Royalty are ineligible to compete again.

College Students: To be eligible to compete in the county or district fair where you are currently attending college, you must have completed one full semester, be a full-time student, and currently be carrying 12 credit hours.

Competition for Jr. & Miss Fair Queen Divisions

Each contestant will compete in Private Interview, Evening Gown, and On-Stage Question.

- ❖ Private Interview – Contestant should dress as if she is interviewing for a job. Appropriate dress for the interview may be a suit, dress, or jumpsuit.
- ❖ Evening Gown – Contestants should choose an evening gown of choice. The choice of gown should be age appropriate.

Interviews – The interview will account for 50 percent of the contestant’s total score. All interviews will be five minutes long and will be timed and monitored. The Judges and Contestants are not allowed to shake hands or have any physical contact. This phase of competition will be judged on eye contact, posture, personality, style, ability to converse, vocabulary, and grammar.

Evening Gown – The Evening Gown Competition will account for 40 percent of the contestant’s total score. Judging will be based on overall first impression, beauty, stage presence, personality, charm, walk, appropriateness of evening gown and overall appearance.

On-stage Question – The On-stage Question will account for 10 percent of a contestant’s total score. This phase of competition will be judged on her ability to answer confidently, as well as her tone of voice and how she presents herself, eye contact, grammar and can she answer questions spontaneously.

Fair Queen Duties – The winner will also compete at the Arkansas State Fair Pageant and represent Columbia County for the Arkansas State Fair Queen Jr. & Miss Titles. During the week of the Columbia County Fair, the winners will be asked to assist the Columbia County Fair Board, at the Fair, where needed (presenting awards, posing for photos, helping, etc.). We encourage the Fair Queen to represent Columbia County during her reign when possible. The reigning Columbia County Fair Queen must always conduct herself properly. Inappropriate behavior bringing unfavorable publicity to herself and/or the Columbia County Fair may result in the Columbia County Fair Queen relinquishing her title and the forfeiture of all prizes and monetary awards.

Any display of bad sportsmanship and/or unbecoming conduct, any interference and/or disturbance, foul language, or any other behavioral problem created by a contestant, parent, relative or supporter of a contestant could result in the disqualification of the contestant not only from this year’s pageant but all future contests.

Mandatory Rehearsal will be held on Sunday September 15, 2024, at 6pm.

The Columbia County Fair Talent & Pageant Directors and or the Columbia County Fair Board reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the contest, and the right to amend or add to these rules as their judgement may determine. Any contestant who fails to abide by any of the above rules can be disqualified from the competition by the Columbia County Fair Talent & Pageant Directors or the Columbia County Fair Board.

The Columbia County Fair is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged property. Please treat the facility with the upmost respect and clean-up after yourself when the event is over.

The Columbia County Talent and Pageant Directors have chosen fair and impartial judges. Contestant and/or parents are not to approach the judges at any time. Their decision will be final.

Jr/Sr/Adult contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending. Jr/Sr contestants must not have ever been married, divorced, or have had children.

Categories to compete in:

Vocal Solo: Shall consist only of a vocal performance by one vocalist. The self-accompaniment vocalist will be judged on vocals only.

Vocal Group: Shall consist of 2 and not more than 10 vocalists. No other talent may be performed. There will only be up to 3 microphones available.

Dance Solo: Shall consist of one dancer. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. All types of dancing will be judged in this category – tap, jazz, ballet, folk, contemporary, ethnic, fad, etc. gymnastics, tumbling, acrobatics, or any other form of gymnastics is not allowed due to stage restrictions and liability.

Dance Group: Shall consist of two and not more than 12 dancers. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. The same rule listed under dance solo apply.

Variety: Shall consist of a performance of one and no more than 10 people. Variety is intended to provide a proper showcase of those acts in which multiple talents are displayed no act may include a drum set, swords, open flames, or any form of flammable liquid.

Instrumental Solo: Shall consist of an instrumental performance without vocal utterance by one performer. Tape accompaniment may be used. Contestants are highly encouraged to memorize their performance rather than using sheet music while performing. We will not furnish a music stand or keyboard.

Time Limits: Each act should not be more than 3 minutes long no exceptions.

Musical accompaniment: Music will only be accepted on a USB drive and must be clearly labeled with contestant's name. There should only be the act you are performing on this USB drive. No phones, iPod or iPad will be used.

No fading or stopping of the music will be allowed if you are digitally playing your music. We do not provide instruments please bring anything you may need.

Props are highly discouraged due to time constraints. If you use/need one, we highly suggest it must be used as a functional part of your act.

Performances are judged on:

- Stage presence/professionalism (10%) technical ability (10%)
- appearance/wardrobe (10%), and entertainment value (20%)

Any inappropriate lyric or moves in the performance will result in immediate disqualification. The Columbia County Fair staff has the right to interrupt a performance if it is not deemed suitable for the Columbia County Fair talent competition.

Rehearsals will be held on Sunday September 15th 6pm. Rehearsal isn't mandatory; however, it is strongly encouraged for you to attend as this is when we will have any last-minute information for you and can answer any questions you may have.

Check in: All ages 14 and over can begin checking in at 6:30pm but no later than 6:45. Check in will be in the dressing room behind the stage. Please come dressed and ready to perform.

Awards: Awards will be given per division.

Talent winners who advance to the Arkansas State Fair can find the information and entry forms for the Arkansas State Fair competition at www.Arkansasstatefair.com. You will have two weeks after county competition to get your entry in.

- Registration is $80 per team
- Entry into the fair will be covered for competing dancers and ONE coach/director. All other coaches/family/supporters must pay at the gate.
- Team check in time will be from 3-4:30. Teams cannot check in past or before this time. Show starts at 5:00pm
- All music must be edited. Profanity in music will result into immediate disqualification.

Dance Categories

- Combined Walk-Thru (minis, jrs, srs): Show us who you are! In your music/performance we want to see/hear you representing your city/state. This is the judges first time seeing you , make them remember you. This is your opportunity to put a small presentation together to sum up who you are what you're about to bring! This routine cannot exceed 4 minutes. Anything over will result into disqualification. Coaches/parents/hand held props are allowed but not required.
- Mini Solo: Must be Pre-K- 5 Grade. Anyone identified and confirmed older than this age participating in this category will be disqualified. They are allowed to perform this solo in any genre. Must be a cartoon theme. Judges are looking for you to dress the part. Include the cartoon actual sound bites or theme music in your mix. Have fun! Props are not required . Routine must not exceed 3 minutes.
- Jr./Sr combined trio. Must be 6th grade-up. Anyone identified and confirmed older than this age participating in this category will be disqualified. They are allowed to perform this trio in any genre. The theme is "Female band." The girl group can be hip hop, pop, r &b, country, rock... you name it! We are expecting you to look the part and for the music to match the girl band you chose. Their music can be mixed however you like and doesn't have to be 100% their songs. Props are not required . Routine must not exceed 3 minutes.
- Mini Stands. Time: Duration of chosen song . Music will not loop. Although you can stop when you want, if you dance for the whole song , the stand will stop when the music stops. Minis have one fast and one medium. Songs will be given after registration is complete.
- Jr/Sr stands combined: Time: Duration of chosen song . Music will not loop. Although you can stop when you want, if you dance for the whole song , the stand will stop when the music stops. Combined stands will have one fast, one medium and one slow. Remaining 2 will do slow. Songs will be given after registration is complete.

Awards

This is a point based competition. There will only be 3 overall winners. There will not be a placement per category. Each category is worth 100 points. The more categories you participate in, the better chance you have at racking up points!

- 3rd Place $125
- 2nd Place $250
- 1st Place $500 and a small advertisement posted trusted Magnolia news outlet.

**For the slow round it's the battle of the bands theme! Supporters will be called to the floor as remaining teams take the stands. Band only music will be played. Bring out your best 8s and 16s. Go off HBCU STYLE!!! ****

Rules

- Sportsmanship Is PRIORITY! Poor sportsmanship exercised by dancers, coaches, parents, supporters will result into disqualification.
- Absolutely no fighting/confrontation will be allowed. This will result in disqualification and/or jail time. Remember we are at a county fair. The county police and sheriffs will be present and will act accordingly by law.

There is limited seating. The sooner you get there, the better. All other information containing this competition will be given after registration is complete. However you can email Cheri Davis for any questions prior or after registration.
